Office of the President

On Sabbath, April 19, 2025, all congregations will join the campers at the Gilbert's campsite for Sabbath worship. Individuals who are desirous of joining the march of witness in the afternoon are encouraged to walk with their lunch.

The zonal Education Consultation meetings will continue on April 26, 2025, when we will host the North Zone (congregations of district 1, 5 and 6) at the St. Johns Seventh-day Adventist Church. The dates of the other two zonal meetings will be communicated at a later date. We are making a very strong appeal for all to give your full support to this gathering. It is of extreme importance that we get your full support. The convention will be in the morning and afternoon.

Personal Ministries

Tomorrow, Sunday, April 13, 2025, at 5 p.m., all Personal Ministries, Sabbath School, Discipleship Small Groups leaders, nurture coordinators and Women's Ministries leaders are invited to a Discipleship Small Groups training session. The session is captioned, 'Discipleship Small Groups: How to Activate the Groups in My Local Church'. This training will be facilitated by the Personal Ministries and Sabbath School director, Dr. Kay White, and held on the Zoom platform using the following access information:

Meeting ID: 863 0226 7640

Passcode: 485917

Youth

Now Camporee

The long anticipated Now camporee, featuring campers from across the South Leeward Conference and beyond, is from April 16 – 21, 2025, at the Gilbert's Estate, Antigua. The Now camporee is for registered campers with a registration band. There will be no day passes, and only registered campers will be allowed on the camp grounds.

The Sabbath celebration, on April 19, will be held at Gilbert's Estate from 9 a.m.

The Sabbath afternoon march of witness will begin at the Rising Sun grounds at 2:40 p.m. All are invited to the Sabbath celebration and the march of witness. We encourage all to come out in their field shirts, placards and holy exuberance. Let's get ready for NOW!

Youth

It is a once in a lifetime experience. All are invited to the NOW international gospel concert featuring international artistes from across the Caribbean and the U.K. The concert will be held at the Gilbert's Estate, on the NOW camp grounds at 8 p.m. The admission is only XCD $10.00. All are invited.

Adventist Possibility Ministries

The Adventist Possibility Ministries department, on Antigua features three of the seven task force ministries under the umbrella ministry in recognition of Possibility Ministries Day: On May 17, 2025. The New Bethel Seventh-day Adventist Church will host the Mental Health Ministry as they celebrate under the theme: "An Ounce of Prevention." On that same sabbath, the Physical Disability Ministry will be hosted at the Jennings Seventh-day Adventist Church, guided by the theme: "My Disability is my Ability."

Then, on May 24, 2025, the Blind and Low Vision and Mental Health ministries will be celebrating at the Tindall Seventh-day Adventist Church under the theme, 'An Ounce of Prevention'.

Adventist Community Services

The South Leeward Conference's Community Services department announces the celebration of Community Services Day in each congregation across the island territories on Sabbath, May 31, 2025. This is the day when every congregation should feature community impact ministries and reports on ministry plans and projections. This celebratory event will be themed: “Creative Ministries for My Community.” Let us all plan and pray for the success of this event.

the Adventist Community Services and Personal Ministries departments are extending a special invitation to all pastors and Discipleship Small Groups leaders across the Conference to an informative virtual session entitled, ‘Engaging My Community for Effective Ministry’. This virtual seminar will take place on April 28, 2025, at 7 p.m., and will engage all attendees on how to conduct community assessments utilizing the Geographic Information System (GIS). The GIS is a powerful online tool that will revolutionize and facilitate assessment in our Discipleship Small Group territories.

The Zoom information will be sent subsequently.

Education

The New Bethel Seventh-day Adventist Academy, in Liberta, is currently accepting applications for new students for the new school year commencing in September. Application forms can be obtained at the school, Mondays to Thursdays 8:30 a.m. – 3 p.m. and on Fridays 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon. Application forms should be returned, with all required documents, by Friday, May 30, 2025. Please contact the school at 562-7218 for further details.

The Caribbean Union Conference is committed to equipping education secretaries within each local congregation with the knowledge and skills necessary to excel in their roles. Additionally, this initiative seeks to revitalize the Seventh-day Adventist philosophy of education among church members.

We are pleased to announce that Dr. Faye Patterson, Education director of the Inter-American Division, will facilitate a certification programme consisting of three 90-minute sessions.

Sessions one and two are completed. The remaining session is scheduled as follows:

Date	Time
April 19, 2025	3 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

We encourage you to save the date and look out for further information.
