General SLC Notices – All Territories

Office of the President

The Caribbean Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists (CARU) is celebrating its centennial anniversary with a grand gathering of leaders in Guyana from Friday, June 12, to Sunday, June 14, 2026. Present at this momentous occasion will be representatives from across the 10 conferences and missions of the Caribbean Union. The vice president of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Dr. Leonard Johnson, will also be in attendance.

Special recognition in the following categories will be given at the celebrations:

- The oldest church in the South Leeward Conference: The Seventh-day Adventist Church, St. John's in Antigua
- One member who has significantly impacted community: The former premiere of Montserrat, Premiere Percival Austin Bramble
- One member who has made 100 years and has been a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church for 75 years: Sister Leontine Clarke of Nevis

The program should be streamed on the CARU YouTube Channel. Also see the CARU centennial anniversary flyer on the SLC Notice Board for more information.

Let us continue to pray for and support the work of the Caribbean Union Conference until Jesus comes.

Communication

The South Leeward Conference's Communication department's Drama Group submitted a documentary-drama featuring the late Vera James for the CARU Film Festival. This film festival is a bi-annual event, showcasing the creativity and dramatic abilities of our members across the Caribbean Union. This year, the film festival is celebrated as part of the CARU centennial celebrations hosted in Guyana, this weekend. Let us all join in celebrating in the richness of CARU Seventh-day Adventist History, and the artistic and dramatic abilities of our people.

The Communication department's CARU Film Festival's submission: A documentary-drama featuring the late Vera James, will be featured at Newfield Seventh-day Adventist Church and hosted by its Advent Youth department. This dramatic presentation will take place, next Sabbath, June 20, 2026, at 4 p.m. All are invited to attend.

The South Leeward Conference's Communication department announces that plans are progressing for a Communication and Social Media Emphasis (CSME) Day on July 18, 2026. More information will be provided as the weeks progress.

Antigua Seventh-day Adventist School (Primary and Secondary)

Applications for the Antigua Seventh-day Adventist School (Primary and Secondary) are now being accepted for the 2026-2027 academic year. Packages can be collected at the School's office, the Conference office or the Adventist Book and Health Food Store.

An application fee of $60 is to be paid upon submission of the completed application to the school. The Antigua Seventh-day School looks forward to receiving your applications as we work together to build a bright future for your boys and girls.

New Bethel Seventh-day Adventist Academy

The New Bethel Seventh-day Adventist Academy is now accepting applications for new students for the upcoming school year. We are committed to providing quality Christian education in a nurturing environment where students grow academically, spiritually, socially, and morally. Application forms can be collected at the SLC office on American Road or the New Bethel Academy in Liberta between the hours of 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. Monday to Friday. Please contact us at 562-7218 or 464-0046 for further information.

University of the Southern Caribbean

The University of the Southern Caribbean, Antigua Satellite campus, provides an excellent opportunity for individuals to pursue quality Christian education while remaining at home with their families and continuing their work and church commitments.

We are encouraging future students to consider furthering their education through USC Antigua. Whether they are:

- Recent high school graduates preparing for the next stage of their lives
- Adults who have long cherished the dream of earning a degree
- Working professionals seeking to enhance their qualifications
- Anyone with a desire for personal, spiritual, and professional growth

USC Antigua offers programmes designed to help you

Education is an investment that benefits not only the individual but also the church and the wider community. By supporting USC Antigua, you are helping to prepare Christian leaders and professionals who will make meaningful contributions to society while upholding biblical values.

Should you require additional information about our programmes, admissions process, or available support services, please do not hesitate to contact the coordinator, Susana Gore, at (268) 772-1758.
